The Late Mrs. H. N. Castle. On Monday, March 20th, the remains of Mrs. H. N. Castle were brought from Indianapolis to Norfolk for interment. This announcement brings sorrow to a large circle of friends. Though her residence in our midst was a brief one, all who came in contact with her recognized her attractiveness, her power and her good influence. It is to her that we owe the introduction of the trained nurse to the city of Norfolk. As a manager of the Retreat for the Sick she established the first training school for nurses in this section, and from this effort has come forth the large body of trained nurses now residing here. She introduced this new field of labor for women and caused the sick bed to be surrounded by alleviations, hitherto unknown to us. The Monday Club, a source of great literary pleasure to a score of ladies, also recognizes her as its founder. Her executive ability was phenomenal, and though physically frail, her powerful will enabled her to respond to any call for her professional or social work. To her family and friends her loss is irreparable, but the faith which enabled her to part calmly from her husband and little child, and the confidence of a certain hope, bids us follow in her steps.

The Spring Medicine. The importance of taking a good Spring Medicine is well known—in fact, its necessity is universally admitted. To argue this point is useless—takes up your time and wastes our space. The real question is, what to take? Of course, you want a medicine which cures blood diseases. For your appetite, stomach, dyspepsia symptoms you want a medicine containing appetite-giving, stomach-toning, dyspepsia-curing qualities. For that tired feeling, dull headache, miserable, all run down condition, you want a true tonic to bone, sinew, nerve and muscle—not a stimulant. Now we can prove, we have proved, we DO prove each and every day in the year, that Hood's Sarsaparilla IS the best; that it is unequalled as a general Spring Medicine; that it meets every requirement above named and more. We prove this by thousands of testimonials—not from people anxious to advertise themselves, but from people in the same walk of life as you. And our testimonials tell of cures, real, bona fide CURES. We believe when you have given it a fair trial you will agree that America's Greatest Medicine and best Spring Medicine is Hood's Sarsaparilla. Prepared by C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Discretion

should be used in the use of linen, just as much so as any thing else. Laundry when done right looks right—not too much starch or too little—just enough. It should not have that glossy greasy yellow heathen Chinese appearance, but white, clean and American. Convert yourself to Americanism and cease at once sending your money to China—can't you see your error? Use other phone, 557, and we will do the rest.
